

Because They Follow Your Every Move

Effective Feedback

Enhanced Performance Management Skills

What makes feedback effective and why is it a core contributor to employee engagement? People want to know how they are doing. At our core, we all want to contribute in a meaningful way. This workshop creates awareness of how specific and frequent feedback is used to improve relationships with people and increase motivation in the workplace.

Participants will learn to:

- Understand the dynamics of leadership and followership
- Learn an easy to use feedback formula
- Understand and overcome resistance to change
- Learn to deal with “stuck” situations

This course is designed for:

- New Managers with limited leadership training
- Leaders who want to sharpen their performance management skills
- Managers working in in new environments
- Leaders wishing to increase positive impact within their team
- Supervisors responsible for performance management
